

Something for adults too! With engaging and fascinating learning programs for adults 50 and older, Lifelong Learning provides four seasons of programs for adults interested in history, science, culture and more. Each program is 60 minutes in length, and accommodates up to 30 participants. Lifelong Learning programs can also make wonderful gifts for those in adult care facilities. If you see a program listed in our In School offerings, and would like to have it presented to your group- please let us know and we can explore the options with you.

Program Descriptions

Amelia- The Flying Feminist

Amelia Earhart, world famous aviator, was a remarkable woman whose life is explored through slides, artifacts and music.

Charles P. Steinmetz, Electrical Wizard of Schenectady

Photographs illustrate the life of this amazing man as immigrant, mathematician, family man and community leader in Schenectady and show his impact on our everyday lives.

Eleanor Roosevelt

This is the journey of a remarkable woman to become herself, told through slides and artifacts. Although born to wealth, she made use of her talents to strike out on her own and become "First Lady of the World".

The Extraordinary Mr. Edison

Few people have touched our lives more profoundly than Thomas A. Edison. Slides and artifacts illustrate his life and his work on a variety of inventions.

First Ladies of the United States

Two programs, which are independent of each other, provide insight into those First Ladies of our country who have ties to New York State, through slides, prints and artifacts. Each program lasts one hour.

- First Ladies of Our First Century: From Martha Washington to Caroline Harrison
- First Ladies of Our Second Century: From Ida McKinley to Hillary Clinton

From Pulp to Paper

We are currently revising this program, the updated version will be available Spring 2017!

Hudson River Panorama

In conjunction with the Albany Institute of History & Art, we are excited to bring you this program, covering 400 years of history, art, and culture along the Hudson River. Participants will have an opportunity to enjoy highlights of the River's Natural History & Environment; role in Transportation, Trade, Commerce and Industry; and the unique Cultural aspects that make it so special.

In Days Gone By

Life was different when clothes were washed by hand, irons were heated on the stove, while butter was made in a churn. A collection of old-fashioned appliances and toys gives a glimpse of work and play at the turn of the twentieth century, and inspires memories to share.

Strike Up the Band: A History of Community Bands through the Ages

This musical program moves from the early bands of Europe's medieval fairs through the Civil War and the music of John Philip Sousa to the New Orleans brass bands with their African traditions, to high school bands and returns to a rebirth of local community bands. A sing-a-long of well-known favorites concludes the program.

Reserve Your Program

Call, email or fax us the scheduling request form, at least 2 weeks prior to the date you want to have a CMOST Traveling Museum visit. Museum programs are very popular, so please list a second choice for visit dates. Confirmation info will be sent prior to the program.
